Southern Democrats in Control

By JOE HALL
 Associated Press Writer
 WASHINGTON (AP) — Southern Democrats will control the chairmanships of the top four Senate committees in the next Congress, extending their already dominant influence.

Their over-all control of committee chairmanships in the Senate, however, will be the same as in the 90th Congress—nine of 16.

In the House, Southerners control four major committees and border state representatives will head six others out of a total of 21.

The only House chairmanship vacated is that of the Un-American Activities Committee, Rep. Edwin E. Willis, D-La., was defeated in the primary and since the second-ranking Democrat, Senate, however, will be the Virginia's William Tuck, is retiring, the chairmanship will go to Missouri Democrat Richard H. Ichord.

Senate Southerners will make a clean sweep of the four most influential panels when Georgia's Richard B. Russell, takes over the Appropriations Committee.

Carl Hayden, the Arizona Democrat retiring at 91, has headed this committee for 14 years. It passes on all of the President's money requests to run the government.

These Dixie Democrats are retaining the other three top chairmanships:

Louisiana's Russell B. Long, Finance. This committee handles tax, social security and trade legislation among others.

Mississippi's James O. Eastland, Judiciary. This panel acts on civil rights bills and anti-crime legislation and passes on all judicial appointments.

Arkansas' J. William Fulbright, Foreign Relations. This Committee considers appointments of ambassadors and U.S. representatives to the United Nations, handles foreign aid bills, and gives advice on American commitments around the world.

Long and Fulbright were re-elected Tuesday, each for the fifth time. Committee chairmanships are awarded by seniority.

Russell is giving up the Armed Services chairmanship to take Appropriations, but the former will be headed by another veteran Southerner, John Stennis of Mississippi.

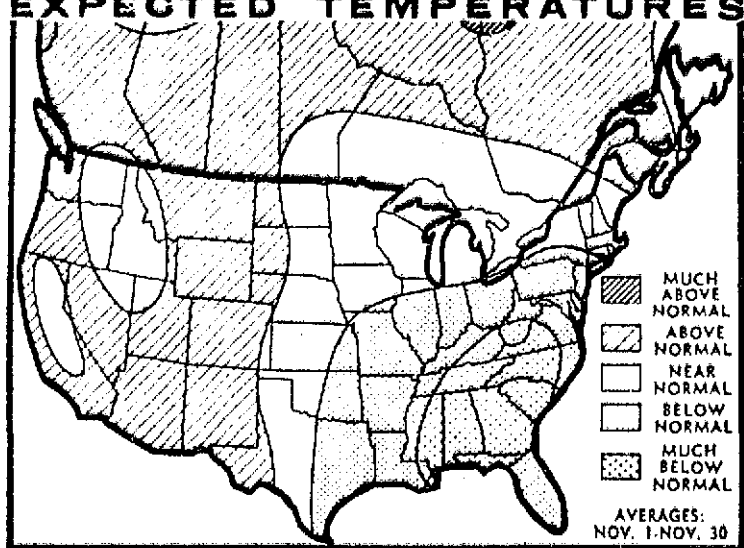

Stennis has been handling a large share of the work on Armed Services in recent years. The Southerners pick up Appropriations but lose Labor and Public Welfare because of the retirement of Lister Hill, D-Ala.

Labor will go to Wayne Morse, D-Ore., if he manages to survive his re-election battle. He was trailing slightly with the contest expected to be settled by absentee ballots and possibly a recount.

If Morse is defeated, Ralph

No Indictments in Death of Three Negroes

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — A federal grand jury has returned no indictments against nine South Carolina highway patrolmen in the deaths of three young Negroes shot in what Negro leaders call the "Orangeburg massacre."

U.S. Justice Department officials had asked for indictments against the state troopers, reportedly alleging violations of the Negroes' civil rights.

The exact charges and the names of the highway patrolmen were not revealed on orders of U.S. District Judge J. Robert Martin, who said the families of the men should not be subjected to the publicity.

The 23-member grand jury returned "no bills" against the highway patrolmen after hearing eight days of testimony from law enforcement officers, newsmen and Negro students present Feb. 8 when the patrolmen fired on a crowd of Negro students, killing three and wounding 30 others.

State Negro leaders expressed disappointment at the grand jury decision. Col. P.F. Thompson, commander of the state highway patrol, called it "only proper and correct if they expect law enforcement officers to do their job in South Carolina."

Mrs. Modjeska Simpkins, a Negro leader in Columbia, said she was not "sufficiently clear on the language of the court in dismissing the grand jury... but I do know that the student group was fired upon on their own grounds with less hesitancy than honorable men would fire into a bunch of ferocious dogs."

She added, "The black people of South Carolina will neither forgive nor forget this massacre."

Dr. Maceo Nance Jr., president of South Carolina State College, said he did not witness the shootings on the edge of his campus, but "based on the information I have, and that which the students gave me, I think there was sufficient evidence for indictments."

State Atty. Gen. Daniel Mc-

Leod said the jury finding "speaks for itself... The matter should now lay at rest for good." A state investigation of the incident had been held up while the federal grand jury studied the case.

The jury included two Negroes.

Thompson, a witness to the shootings, said "In Orangeburg that night, we did what we had to do in defense of our lives and the lives and property of others."

State law enforcement officials said shots were fired from the crowd of Negroes and they returned fire in self-defense. Leaders of the students disputed this.

Killed when highway patrolmen opened fire on the crowd were Delano Middleton, 17, a high school student in Orangeburg, and Sam Hammong and Henry Smith, both 18 and freshmen at South Carolina State College.

The confrontation climaxed a series of student demonstrations protesting the "whites only" policy of the Orangeburg's only bowling alley.

After the deaths, Gov. Robert McNair ordered a curfew on the city nightly for a week. The U.S. Justice Department filed suit and a court ordered desegregation of the bowling alley.

Late Count Has 3 States In Doubt

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
 Voters in three states still do not know whom they chose for president and those of one state wonder who will represent them in the U.S. Senate.

The presidential electoral votes involved would not be enough to change the outcome, even if all three states—Missouri, Maryland and Alaska—went to Hubert H. Humphrey.

President-elect Richard M. Nixon has won states with 287 electoral votes, 17 more than a majority.

The senatorial race count continues in Oregon.

In the national presidential race, the latest vote tabulation showed Humphrey with 30,122,715 or 43.2 per cent; Nixon with 30,446,028 or 43.6 per cent; and George C. Wallace with 9,186,703 or 13.2 per cent. Humphrey also had 53,120 from a second state of electors in Alabama.

In Missouri, with 12 electoral votes, completion of the unofficial tabulation showed Nixon with 766,169 and Humphrey with 758,547. Between 75,000 to 100,000 absentee ballots remain to be counted today or Saturday. Missouri has 12 electoral votes.

In Maryland, home state of Vice President-elect Spiro T. Agnew, Nixon had 502,059 votes and Humphrey had 519,797. There were 36,000 absentee ballots and no immediate indication when the final results would be known. Maryland has 10 electoral votes.

The latest count in Alaska, with three electoral votes, showed Nixon with 32,245 and Humphrey with 31,337. The state's 7,000 absentee votes, along with tallies from some outlying areas, were to be counted today.

In Oregon, the ballot count-down resumes today in the Senate race between Democrat Wayne Morse, the incumbent, and Republican Robert Packwood. At the conclusion of counting Thursday night the tally read: Morse 400,257; Packwood 403,756. About 6,000 ballots remain to be tallied.

Woman Hits German Chief, Sentenced

By GEORGE THOMSON
 Associated Press Writer
 BERLIN (AP) — A 29-year-old woman who has badgered West German Chancellor Kurt Georg Kiesinger for several years was sentenced Thursday night to a year in jail for clouting him in the eye.

Mrs. Beate Klarsfeld, a German-born French citizen who has a 3-year-old son, said she would appeal the sentence. She was released from custody.

"I did it because Kiesinger is a Nazi and because of the millions of Jews gassed in Auschwitz by the Nazis, and because only a scandal can draw the attention of the world to this fact," she told a news conference.

"If I have to serve the sentence, I shall do it with a sense of honor. So many people lost their lives in Auschwitz, I would be happy to spend only a few months in prison for doing what I did," she said.

Kiesinger was signing autographs Thursday at the end of the national congress of his Christian Democratic party when Mrs. Klarsfeld came up behind the chancellor's security guards with an old press pass of her husband's and slapped him when he turned to her.

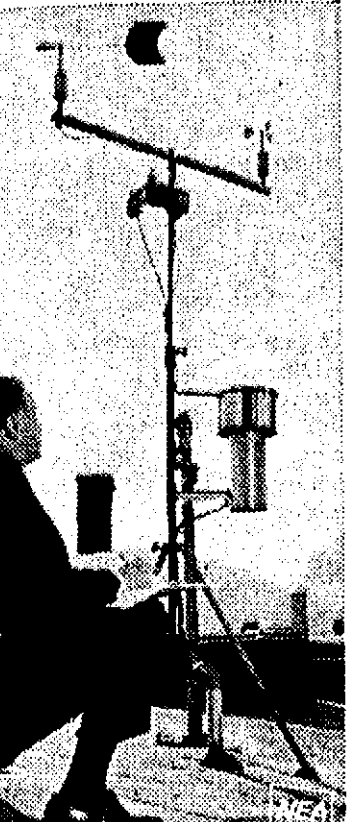

"I saw that broad, grinning face," she said, "And I thought to myself, 'Okay, just let him have it.' So then I let fly at him. It was simple."

The slap slightly inflamed Kiesinger's left eye. He went on signing autographs while party secretary Bruno Heck hauled Mrs. Klarsfeld away. Later the chancellor put on dark glasses and gave a short closing speech to the convention.

Kiesinger, 64, joined the Nazi party in 1933 when Hitler came to power and remained a member until the end of World War II. During the war he worked in the Foreign Ministry's radio propaganda section.

Mrs. Klarsfeld, whose French husband lost his father at Auschwitz, began abusing Kiesinger for his Nazi past in 1966, after he became chancellor. Because of her attacks, she lost her job as a secretary with the French-German youth exchange system. Later she wrote a pamphlet "The Truth about Kurt Georg Kiesinger" which a Berlin Jewish committee published.

Last April, as millions of television viewers looked on, she was dragged from the gallery of the West German Bundestag after screaming, "Nazi Kiesinger!" during a speech by the chancellor.

After Thursday's encounter Kiesinger brushed aside suggestions that he take legal action against his red-haired antagonist and said, "I do not like filing suits when a woman attacks me physically." But he authorized the court trial on charges of public insult and inflicting bodily injury.

Mrs. Klarsfeld's husband, a Jew employed by an export-import firm in Paris, flew to Berlin and told newsmen: "I am proud of my wife. She did the right thing."

Klarsfeld used to be a journalist.

SEARCHING FOR GREENER FIELDS. 800,000 persons annually leave the farm, according to a Department of Agriculture estimate. Many of them go to the city where they find they are untrained for urban life although their backgrounds make them suitable for agri-business occupations at a time when such jobs are going begging. Young men and women are sorely needed in fields concerned with food processing; distribution of farm supplies; home economics; agricultural research; and the dissemination of technical advice to farm dwellers. Encouraging youngsters to pursue agri-business careers is one of the activities of the National Farm-City Committee, a nonprofit organization which highlights its annual efforts with National Farm-City Week, celebrated this year Nov. 22-28.

Man Sought in Kidnaping in Lima, Ohio

LIMA, Ohio (AP) — A man kidnaped the 11-year-old daughter of a bank president by locking her in her room Thursday and threatened her harm until he collected a $50,000 ransom, police said.

He was hunted today by police and the FBI. Police Chief William K. Davenport said Mrs. A. D. MacDonell Jr., wife of the president of the Metropolitan Bank of Lima, paid the ransom and found her daughter Amy unharmed at home, police said.

Mrs. MacDonell told police she encountered the man, wearing green overalls, knitted cap, penciled-on mustache and sunglasses when she returned home Thursday morning after taking her son to school.

She said the man told her he had locked her daughter in an upstairs bedroom and threatened to harm the child if Mrs. MacDonell did not give him $50,000.

Davenport quoted Mrs. MacDonell as saying the man instructed her to cash a $50,000 check at a nearby branch of the Metropolitan Bank, then wait there for a phone call.

She told police she followed the man's instructions, and when he called she was told to borrow a bank employee's white convertible and drive back home.

Police said the man flagged her down about two blocks from her home, took the car and the money and told her to walk home.

Mrs. MacDonell said she found her daughter at home, unharmed.

Police and FBI officials put out an alert for a man about 36 years old and 5 feet, 9 inches tall.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

HER "TAKING WAYS" COME BACK TO HAUNT HER

Dear Helen: Many years ago when my children were young, we were too poor for extras. While I was shopping one day, the owner of the store gave me $20 change for a five dollar bill, by mistake. I bought Christmas presents for my girls. I excused myself by saying the store man was rich and could afford the loss, and my children deserved Christmas.

Maybe God forgave, but I couldn't forgive myself. Not long afterward the owner died, and the store was sold to a chain. There isn't even a descendant to pay the money to, now I can afford it.

How can I make my conscience quit? —ANN W.

Dear Ann: Why not find two little girls from the Ghetto and give them the best Christmas they ever had? And let's hope your friendship doesn't end with the holidays. —H.

Dear Helen: My daughter says half of her college professors wear beards of some kind. Men at our office come back from vacations with them. It seems that the best educated, brainiest, best dressed fellows have "got hair" these days.

While the kids wear it to their shoulders, older men cover their chins with it. Is this some kind of temporaryfad, or are beards, goatees, even muttonchops here to stay a while? And why?

HAIR TODAY HAIR TOMORROW

Dear HTHT: I don't know. So let's ask the men who own them. How about it, bearded ones, will you be "hair today, bare tomorrow"? Or do you plan to keep the chin warmers until itching doth you part? —H.

Dear Helen: My son dated a married woman several times, though she was separated from her husband. She became pregnant and blamed the child on him. He was sure it wasn't his, but he was on parole and could not risk her making a complaint, so he paid all bills and gave her money every two weeks for over a year, though he stopped seeing her.

Then he stopped paying, as he found out the birth certificate shows her husband as the father. He is now married to a nice girl, and the woman is living with another man. Last week she called my son up and demanded child support money or she'd take him to court, and make all kinds of trouble. Has she got a case, since he DID pay for the baby first?

He is no longer on parole and his wife knows about the case. The little boy is very dark and my son is almost blond.

What should he do? —Mrs. M.S. Dear Mrs. S: He should tell the gal to peddle her blackmail elsewhere. But if she persists, he'd better consult a lawyer. —H.

Dear Helen: A loud "Hear, hear!" for "UNEMPLOYED AND HURTIN'." My daughter and her friends are in the same boat: Not poor enough to be given a job, and not rich enough to do without one.

If the middle class college kid does get a job, the pay is cut drastically to put the poor kid at a desk. If he takes out a loan, the interest rate puts the banker's kid in a fraternity. If we middle class slob got together and started a protest because we're tired of paddling our own canoe while the rich ride on their influence and the poor get carried on taxes, inflation would deflate like a punctured bubble. There's no danger, however, of us rocking the boat, because our ambition, pride, and sense of responsibility keep us too busy doing all the rowing.—Mrs. U.S. Backbone Oarsman First Class

Life In Arkansas

By TOMMY YATES
Associated Press Writer

Alex H. Washburn, the crusading editor of the Hope Star, who says he is dedicated to blasting people out of the rut they've unhappily fallen into, has been carrying on another campaign and, apparently, he has won round one.

Last month, Washburn objected in his newspaper column to the practice of some companies and governmental agencies issuing self-addressed return envelopes with the upper right-hand corner "clobbered by a printed legend: 'Place Stamp here.'"

He pointed out that many firms, including the Star, don't use stamps but employ a postage meter.

He points out that the meter has to have the upper right-hand corner of an envelope blank in order to make its postage imprint.

"But when this space is already clobbered up with some idiotic printing, an angry clerk has to stop dispatching the man, print the postage on a tape, and paste the tape over the printed words already on the envelope," he said, adding that this defeats the meter system.

Washburn named three specific offenders on the "Place Stamp Here" count: Southwest Bell, the Internal Revenue Service and the state Revenue Department.

Washburn said he received a week later an office memorandum from Revenue Commissioner B. Bryan Larey.

The memorandum said, "He (Washburn) further points out that this information is obviously surplusage and thus not only does it make it difficult it's not impossible, to read the postage-meter stamp, it insults people's intelligence."

"From now on when we order forms, let's follow Mr. Washburn's suggestion and leave this off," it said.

Washburn gave the Revenue Department a big "thanks" in his column.

Shampoo False Eyelashes

False eyelashes are now an important cosmetic accessory in the best of circles. But how do we clean them? Here is one sure way: Dunk them several times in a solution of warm water and a dash of gentle baby shampoo to loosen dirt and hardened eye make-up. Rinse thoroughly in cold water, carefully removing any clinging particles with your fingers or using a pin without tugging at the lashes. Then lay the lashes out on a clean towel to dry in a warm spot.

Hope Juniors Proud to Be Winners

by: RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer

It had been quite a long while since the Hope Bobkittens had enjoyed a winning season, but 1968 was the year of change. Coach Gaylord Solomon took a determined bunch of freshmen and guided them to an exciting 6-1 season, closing out with three shutout victories.

Before the season opener at Prescott Coach Solomon knew that his boys needed an early win to gain confidence, and banked his hopes on a powerful running game led by Ray Wheelington and Tommy Miller.

In that opener Ray rushed for 112 yards and Miller 82, and breakaway plays gave the Kittens a 25-0 rout and the confidence to get ready for the tough DeQueen Leopards' Cubs the next week.

The DeQueen game started with Hope drawing first blood, when Miller jaunted 13 yards to paydirt after a fumble recovery to make it 7-0 at the quarter. The visiting Cubs got a break late in the half, however, when a snap went over the Hope punter's head and DeQueen recovered at the Bobkittens seven. They scored a short while later, and the PAT tied it at 7-7 at halftime.

Dominating the statistical battle with a tough defense, the Kittens were unable to drive until late. With six minutes left Hope started a 58-yard drive for the winning score, and this was the real turning point between a winning and losing season as far as pride was concerned.

Miller scored on a six-yard reverse with 1:13 left, and the Kittens were 2-0 with 13-7 win. Arkadelphia was next, though, and the Badgers were unbeaten and bigger than the locals.

What a battle that one was, but the breaks cost the Kittens their only loss of the fall. A quick safety put Hope out front 2-0, and on the ensuing kick the Bobkittens drove deep. At last Wheelington broke to the one-foot line for a first and goal, but offensive holding set it back to the 22, and Arkadelphia held to keep it 2-0 at halftime.

The Badgers had a halfback named "Super" Luther Guinn, and he shone in that fateful second half. Luther took the kickoff, and mugged around until he was open and went 80 yards to turn everything around.

That one took the sting out of the Kittens, and stalwart Lynn Norton was injured just later. Luther Guinn wasn't through either, as he ran 38 yards for a final score to give the Badgers a 13-2 win, a tough one for Hope to lose.

Now 2-1, the Bobkittens had to come back the next week against a tough Camden club, and they surely did. It was a turnaround game, in which every Score switched the lead to the other team. Camden scored on the first play from scrimmage to make it 6-0, but Wheelington took the very next kickoff and sped 80 yards to make it 7-6 Hope.

In the second quarter the Kittens fumbled at their own 35, and the Cubs drove for another score to make it 12-7. That was all for Camden, but it was nearly enough to win.

Late in the third segment, though, the Bobkittens once more showed their pride by moving 45 yards for the winning TD. QB Steve Harris took it over from the one, and the PAT made the final tally a 14-12 win and a 3-1 mark for Hope.

The next week was an open date for the Kittens, and they came back stale but ready to face the final three opponents, none of whom were as good as Arkadelphia, Camden, or even DeQueen.

Nashville was next, and the Scrappers were in the midst of an off year. It took a while for Hope to get off the ground from the open week, but when they started to move the game was decided.

With two minutes left in the half and the score still 0-0, Wheelington followed some great blocking and ran 78 yards to give Hope a 7-0 lead. The next score came after the halftime buzzer following a penalty, as Harris hit Miller with a letter-perfect 13-yard pass to make it 13-0.

The Scrappers held off the kittens in the second half, though, allowing only a 41-yard TD dash to Miller, who played a great game. Nashville never could get unwound offensively, however, and Hope came away 4-1 with a 19-0 shutout.

Magnolia's Panther Cubs had slaughtered the Bobkittens for many a year, but 1968 was the year for Magnolia to eat the dirt. Wheelington was most impressive, amassing 202 yards on only 16 carries. He scored three first-half touchdowns which broke the game open and let the defense shine in the later going.

That defense blocked a third-quarter punt at the Magnolia ten, and fullback Norton scored his only TD of the year from one yard out. Then Miller got in his score with 2:34 left, picking up a fumble and outdistancing everyone 29 yards for the score.

It was a 31-0 winner for the Bobkittens, now 5-1, and the team now looked forward to another past merciless opponent, the Fairview Cardinals. Fairview was ready to play, though, and kept the Kittens out of scoring range with an effective pass rush which ruined two good advances on long losses.

Nobody had really come into goal line range though the first three quarters, but the proud Bobkittens defied everything else and used their fourth interception of the game to start a climactic drive from midfield.

After two big third down plays, the drive appeared to be halted when penalties set up the Kittens facing a 4th and 14 from their own 29 with four minutes left. Harris was rushed hard as he set up to pass, but a screen pass was the call, of all things, and it worked. Wheelington took the job at the 34 with four blockers in front, and beautifully worked his way into the end zone. The PAT was good on a pass to Harris from 6th grader Buddy Ingram, and the 7-0 score held up under a last-ditch drive by Fairview which ended with a fumble at the Hope ten.

That one ended 7-0, one of the most hard-earned of any victories the Kittens had scored, but the 6-1 season was sensational. As were the statistics. The two-man team of Wheelington racked up 736 yards on 105 carries, better than 105 yards a game, and scored eight TD's. Miller, on the other hand, ran 62 times for 409 yards and six scores.

Also names to remember as this bunch moves up are the names of the linemen and those who weren't in the limelight. Falling in this category are performers such as Richard Butler, David Powers, Bill Moore, Bill Rowland, Tim White, David Sanders, Rodney Burke, Johnny Holmes, Jack Turner, Tommy Frazier, Jim Arrington, Paul Young, David Chance.

More freshmen who deserve credit for sticking it out are Phil Butler, Rusty Worthy, Joey Tye, Mike Pingear, Greg Gilbert, Randall Dick, and Don Hamilton. These all are the ones who put forth the effort, and Coach Gaylord Solomon assisted by Durdward Bourns did an outstanding job in making the team what it was, in developing the right attitude of winning determination and pride. It was a great season, and this bunch will make plenty of noise when they get to be Bobcats. And they can hardly wait.

The six-goal night earned a spot in the record book for Berenson, who led St. Louis to an 8-0 romp over Philadelphia. Berenson had managed a total of 14 goals in 166 NHL games before being traded to the expansionist Blues last year. He responded with a 22-goal season and was named Most Valuable Player of the NHL's new West Division.

He had three goals this season before Thursday's explosion. "Tonight," he said later, "was just like planting trees. Some years you plant 12 and five or six grow. And some years, they all come up."

They almost all came up against the Flyers. Berenson missed his first shot and then scored on each of his next five against goalie Doug Favell. He had one goal in the first period, four in the second and one in the third.

Berenson's flurry tied two NHL records. His four second period goals tied the mark for a single period set by Harvey "Busher" Jackson of the Toronto Maple Leafs in 1934 and tied by Max Bentley of the Chicago Black Hawks in 1943.

The six goals for the game tied the modern NHL mark set by Syd Howe of the Detroit Red Wings in 1944.

In Thursday's other games, Montreal got past Pittsburgh 5-4 and Detroit rapped Minnesota 5-2.

Bobby Rousseau, shut out in Montreal's first 10 games, exploded for three goals including the game-winner against the Penguins. Rousseau also had two assists and Henri Richard scored once and picked up four assists for the Canadians.

Gene Ubriaco hit twice for Pittsburgh, which held a 3-1 lead before three Montreal goals inside of 6½ minutes erased the edge late in the second period.

Southern Cal Faces Stern Test

By MIKE BRYSON

Associated Press Sports Writer
Southern California, with a bit of tarnish on its No. 1 reputation, faces a stern test this weekend of having it completely blackened.

The Trojans, whose advantage over Ohio State in The Associated Press poll has been shaved to a paper thin edge, square off against defensive-minded California Saturday in a match that will probably not only determine one of the Rose Bowl participants but also the national champion.

Sensational O. J. Simpson was held to 67 yards and Southern Cal scored a touchdown with just 1:13 left last week to squeak unheralded Oregon State 20-13 for its sixth straight.

Since Ohio State, also 6-0, is an overwhelming favorite Saturday against hapless Wisconsin, 1-6, the Trojans undoubtedly will have to be impressive to maintain their hold on the top spot.

And, they will have to do it against a stingy defense. California, ranked No. 11, has permitted only 39 points in rolling to a 5-1-1 record.

While Ohio State should have an easy time of it, No. 3 Kansas and No. 4 Penn State—both eyeing Orange Bowl bids—face strong foes in their efforts to remain unbeaten.

Kansas, fresh from a 27-14 coast past Colorado for seventh straight, plays host to stubborn Oklahoma, 3-3, and Penn State, 6-0, which survived a late rally to subdue Army 28-24, enters a bit erratic but strong Miami, Fla., 5-2.

No. 5 Tennessee, 5-0-1, tackles No. 18 Auburn, 5-2, in the second of a big day-night double-header involving two important Southeast Conference games at Birmingham, Ala. No. 20 Louisiana State meets Alabama in the afternoon game.

No. 6 Purdue travels to Minnesota for a Big Ten game that will be nationally televised. No. 7 Michigan draws lowly Illinois. No. 8 Missouri plays Iowa State. No. 9 Georgia meets Florida at Jacksonville and No. 10 Texas travels to Baylor.

In other games, No. 12 Notre Dame plays host to Pittsburgh. No. 13 Houston has a night game at Memphis State. No. 14 Arkansas faces Rice. No. 15 Oregon State meets UCLA. No. 16 and unbeaten Ohio University is at Bowling Green. No. 17 Michigan State tests Indiana and No. 19 Wyoming is idle.

Liked Feeling and Did It Second Time

Red Berenson scored the first three-goal hat trick of his National Hockey League career Thursday night and he liked the feeling so much that he did it again.

Bobcats Are Hopeful for a Comeback

By: RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer

Whether or not the Hope Bobcats will hit a late-season hot streak will be determined tonight, as the Cats stack up against the Camden Lincoln Tigers at 7:30 p.m. in Coleman Stadium.

Carrying a 4-4-1 mark into the game, Lincoln is a slight favorite over the Bobcats, 2-6-1. However, everyone knows that Hope could beat anyone if they got back up to the peak reached in the game with Fairview.

Injuries and sicknesses continue to dominate the depth chart, and the latest victims are Dillon and Gary Wheelington, both of who missed yesterday's mid-afternoon workout. Gary reinforced an already troublesome sick.

Starting at Dillon's Defensive Halfback spot will be sophomore Stan James, who has done quite well at pass coverage for the "B" lizards this year. Spelling Stan on occasion will be, ironically, Ray Wheelington, one of three freshmen who will play a good bit tonight.

The other 9th graders who have stepped in and done very well are Tommy Miller and Lynn Norton. Norton will alternate with Rodney Jones at Carroll Beck's defensive tackle position, and Miller will take Rodney's place at slotback. This will allow Rodney to run with the specialty teams, in the absence of Gary Wheelington.

Of the offensive tackles this week are Jim Alford and Mickey Allen, who moves back to offense because of Beck's shoulder injury. They make a doubtful line more definite, and that line's blocking will mean the difference tonight.

Main threats in the Lincoln offense are the rollouts of QB Cleveland Murphy, who runs better than he passes, and the power running of 212-pound fullback Louis Thrift. This means that they are heading directly into Hope's defensive strengths, stopping inside running games as well as passing attacks.

If Murphy can roll effectively away from the Bobcat monster man, though, he will have a much better chance of keeping the Lincoln offense moving. However, the Bobcats already can easily move into the wide-tackle-six, which will eliminate any effectiveness around the flanks.

This is a 4-AA Western Division ballgame for Hope, and the winner will have a chance of finishing tied for second when it's over. The Bobcats are ready, but the offensive unit holds the key. It may tell this evening, as they are meeting a rather porous Lincoln defense.

With the defense's main leaders back in, and with David Still able to punt if nothing else, the Bobcats should get a few of those previously non-existent good breaks. A good attitude and a determination to show themselves off will give Hope an early lead, but it will take at least one second-half touchdown to put it away. And the Big Cats will come back happy, with a promising 20-13-win.

Picks Porks Over Rice by 14 Points

By HARRY KING

Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Frank Broyles dotes on playing one game at a time, not even sneaking a look two or three games ahead.

Arkansas' concern this week is Rice, the next obstacle in the Razorbacks' drive toward at least a share of the Southwest Conference title.

You can be sure Broyles emphasize that Rice is winless. He'll tell his players that the Owls only trailed Texas by three points in the fourth quarter, were tied with LSU at the half, led SMU at the half and tied Washington 35-35 in the season opener.

He'll also remind the Razorbacks that the Owls "have shut down our offense for two years in a row."

The offensive team, guided by brilliant sophomore Bill Montgomery, put together three long touchdown drives in the second half of last week's 25-23 victory over Texas A&M. Tailback Bill Burnett, second leading rusher in the conference, is not expected to play in the conference, is not expected to play in the homecoming game against Rice but David Dickey is expected to be ready. Bruce Maxwell's complete return at fullback should make the Razorbacks' sweeps even more effective.

Arkansas, Texas, SMU and Texas Tech are locked in a four-way tie for first in the SWC. The Razorbacks don't figure to relinquish their share this week.

ARKANSAS 28, RICE 14.
Arkansas State University is headed for a Southland Conference showdown next week with the University of Texas at Arlington, but the Indians will risk their national ranking Saturday at Southwestern Louisiana. ASU can't afford to be looking ahead and still avoid its second defeat.

ASU 14, SOUTHWESTERN 10
Arkansas Tech and Ouachita play for the AIC championship Saturday at Russellville. Tech, with a victory over OBU, would have only Harding to beat for a clear cut championship. Ouachita, on the other hand, can throw the race into a virtual three-way tie with a victory. Unbeaten Tech is ranked fourth in the NAIA ratings. Ouachita beat sixth-ranked Austin College last week and shouldn't be awed by No. 4.

ARKANSAS TECH 10, OUACHITA 7
Last week's percentage was .667. Here's how we see this week's games:

Winners Are Picked in Pro Football

NEW YORK (AP)—Dallas, Los Angeles and Baltimore should continue to march along in the National Football League Sunday with west. Louis and Cleveland.

Philadelphia might even win one and the standings of the tight Central Division could be scrambled again after the Green Bay-Minnesota game.

The New York Jets have a chance to just about wrap up the Eastern Division of the American Football League but the Kansas City-Oakland-San Diego race should continue in the West.

Last week's score was 10-3 (6-2 in the NFL, 4-1 in the AFL) making it 60-29-2 for the season. Let's give it another whirl. All games are Sunday.

NFL
St. Louis 24, Pittsburgh 10 — Utterers return to hero's after winning jousts with Angeles and Falcons. Cards have running of Willis Crenshaw and blocking to give Jim Hart time to throw.

Cleveland 27, New Orleans 13 — Browns are coming on strong with three straight wins. Bill Nelsen has given Browns' big lift and Leroy Kelly is running wild. Saints hurting with Billy Kilmer out must try for the bomb with Karl Sweetan who was intercepted four times by Dallas. Saints won exhibition game in August but Browns won 24-10 when it counted opening day.

Baltimore 24, Detroit 14—Colts have been way up for Rams and Giants, can't afford to let down against Lions who are always dangerous at home. Philadelphia 17, Washington 14—It takes a brave, and probably foolish, man to pick the Eagles to win one. They did have solid running from Tom Woodeschick against Cards and Norm Snead was improved. Redskins favored slightly and they did beat Philadelphia earlier 17-14.

Minnesota 23, Green Bay 17—The Vikings never have beaten Packers twice in one season but this could be the year. They played ball control to win 26-13 in Sept. 22 game.

Los Angeles 30, Atlanta 14—Rams had to come from behind in first meeting three weeks ago for 27-14 edge when they probably were looking ahead to Baltimore.

Dallas 34, New York 17 — Giants still wondering what went wrong in shutout by Colts. Fran Tarkenton will get the big pass rush again from that Dallas front four.

San Francisco 21, Chicago 20—If 49ers win it will be an upset. Bears coming off tough winning game over Packers. Gale Sayers is Chicago's main weapon but he may not be able to do it alone. If John Brodie gets time to throw, he is capable of piercing that Bear defense.

Rail Unions Voting on Merger

By NEIL GILBRIDE
AP Labor Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Members of four railroad unions are voting on whether to merge into one powerful organization of nearly 200,000 men with more bargaining-table clout and a broader base for branching into other areas of the transportation industry.

"We would have more muscle if we put our money together, our men together and our bargaining committees together," said a spokesman for one of the unions which have been fighting a losing battle over sharp job cuts in the past 15 years.

Government and industry officials view the prospect with some concern.

The four unions are the AFL-CIO Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen with 125,000 members, the AFL-CIO Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen with 40,000, the AFL-CIO Switchmen's Union of 10,000 members and the Independent Order of Railway Conductors and Brakemen with 15,000.

Missing from the unity movement is the 40,000-strong Independent Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, which has been in fierce competition with the Firemen over the right to represent engineers.

Preliminary results of the balloting are due Nov. 22, with the final result expected Dec. 10.

The outcome is by no means certain since a majority of just one of the unions could defeat the proposal and there is opposition.

"It would make negotiations tougher," said John P. Hiltz, chief labor negotiator for the nation's railroad industry.

"The impression I get, and it's not a good one, is that it would give each of them a little more strength to push their favorite project," said a government

Believe it or not but those pods hanging from a tree are beans grown by Rad Reddiner of Hope, Ark. (16th streets) and they are good to eat when young. However, these got a little bit out of hand. Mr. Caldwell says they are called Gurinie beans and the vine grows in a tree.

INDIAN BLACK MARKET
NEW DELHI (AP) — Smuggled foreign products that are otherwise unavailable in India fetch a nice price in the black markets of New Delhi.

Deputy Prime Minister Morarji Desai indicated to Parliament that a special breed of smuggler has been observed and caught — members of the capital's considerable diplomatic community.

Twelve cases of "unauthorized importation of foreign goods" allegedly involving foreign diplomats were uncovered in the last two years, Desai said.

Among intercepted smuggled goods were $10,000 worth of nylon saris, highly prized by Indian women.

ment official closely involved in the nation's frequently troubled railroad labor relations.

But another high government official, while agreeing a large merged union might make bigger wage demands, said it would also halt interunion warfare and competition to see who can win the biggest pay hikes.

One of the unions' chief efforts following years of dwindling railroad employment is job protection against determined industry efforts to reduce the number of men on the trains.

Disputes over jobs cuts have involved Congress, the courts and the White House in recent years to forestall numerous nationwide strikes.

The four unions plan to call their merged organization the United Transportation Union.

"The future of this union is not just rails, but all other transportation. Why sit around and die with the railroads?" said a Trainmen spokesman.

Total railroad employment has been slashed drastically from some 1.2 million in 1953 to about 600,000 now.

North Texas Frosh Beat the Shoots

DENTON, Tex. (AP) — Quarterback David Jones ran for two touchdowns and passed for a third Thursday night to lead the North Texas frosh to a 29-14 victory over the Arkansas Shoots.

Jones scored on runs of 12 and two yards and fired a 10-yard touchdown pass to Leonard Mayo. Rodney Hill tailed the other Eaglet touchdown on a five-yard run.

The Shoots managed a 14-14 halftime tie as Steve Jones raced 10 yards for one score and Steve Allen tossed a 32-yard touchdown pass to Gus Rusher.

Pioneer 9 Spacecraft Is in Orbit

By HOWARD BENEDICT
AP Aerospace Writer

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Spacecraft Pioneer 9 today rocketed into orbit around the sun as a lonely, far-out sentry to warn of solar radiation storms that could endanger astronauts on the moon.

The three-stage Delta rocket also hurled into earth orbit a 40-pound communications satellite that will be used as a practice target for the 18 stations in America's global man-in-space tracking network.

The rocket brilliantly illuminated the early morning darkness as it blazed upwards at 4:46 a.m. with its double payload.

Twenty-five minutes later the National Aeronautics and Space Administration reported that the communications satellite had been kicked into an orbit more than 200 miles high and that Pioneer 9 was in orbit about the sun.

Officials said several hours will be required to determine the probe's precise path.

Pioneer 9 was aimed toward an elliptical solar orbit from 70 million to 93 million miles from the sun's searing surface. On this path it would take 298 days to complete each orbit.

The sun-orbiter carried eight experiment, to record and transmit information about the solar wind, cosmic rays, cosmic dust and electric and magnetic fields as it zipped on its lone-some journey.

Three earlier Pioneer — 6, 7 and 8 — still are operating as they circle the sun on widely-spaced paths. The combination of the four probes should give physicists the broadest picture yet of conditions in interplanetary space.

A major assignment is to provide advance warning of radiation that could spill into space from solar flares and threaten a man-to-the-moon mission.

The sun presently is entering the most active period of its 11-year flare cycle and will reach peak activity next year when American astronauts hope to land on the moon.

With enough alert of major flares, the moon flights could be delayed, or the astronauts could alter the path of their spaceship in case of an eruption after they're under way.

Several huge flares occurred last month during the Apollo 7 mission, but the astronauts were protected by the earth's atmosphere and by their spaceship.

In Prague last week, a Czechoslovakian scientist suggested a solar storm might have forced a premature end to the orbital flight of the manned Soyuz 3 flight. However, there was no indication of this from the Soviet Union.

If NASA decides to send Apollo 8 on a lunar orbit mission in December, the three pilots will be sufficiently protected by their spacecraft, officials say. The danger, they add, is when astronauts are in the lunar module which will transport two astronauts to the moon's surface, or when the astronauts are on the moon, protected only by their space suits.

Present daily reports from Pioneer 6, which is behind the sun, give advance warning of magnetic storm regions on the sun 16 days before they are visible from earth. Pioneer 7 provides five days and Pioneer 8 about 35 hours notice.

NOT HIS PROVINCE

MOGA, India (AP) — Even a minister can be derailed.

A Punjab state minister issued an order summarily dismissing a railway station master, based on complaints he had received against him.

He almost immediately rescinded it on being told he had no jurisdiction over the railways, which is a central government undertaking.

LOPAT IS EXPO SCOUT
HILLSDALE, N.J. (AP) — The end of the baseball season meant nothing more than a stop at home for a change to fall clothing for Ed Lopat, former Yankee southpaw ace.

During the last six weeks of the season Lopat had scouted all National League teams except the Houston Astros for the Montreal Expos, one of the four expansion teams for 1969. The former manager and general manager of the Kansas City Athletics then went to Montreal to recommend players who might help the Expos.

West led his ace of hearts and continued with the queen.
South ruffed, looked over dummy and asked his partner why he hadn't rebid his spades. North replied that he would have done so if South hadn't gone to three clubs but by this time South was absorbed in the problem of making his three club contract.

As you can see, South might well have made two over-tricks by the simple expedient of conceding a trick to the king of clubs but South worked out a play to go down.
See if you can figure out how he managed this. East did come up with a good defensive play.

South started working out his downfall by playing the ace of diamonds at trick three and ruffing a diamond at trick four. He was still in good shape but things took a nasty turn shortly thereafter.

His next play was to enter his hand with the ace of spades to lead another diamond. He ruffed this with the six and East came up with the good defensive play. He forgot to overruff. He also was careful to discard a spade, not a heart.

South smiled cheerfully, entered his hand again by ruffing a heart and led a fourth diamond for dummy to ruff with the queen of trumps.
This time East remembered to overruff. Then East led a fourth round of hearts. South ruffed with the nine, and West overruffed with the 10.

West led his king of diamonds whereupon East came up with his second key play of the hand. He ruffed his partner's trick with his five of

Streptococci May Grow In Respiratory System

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Q—How can streptococci get into the blood? Is there any special diet to help build up the body after a strep infection?

A—There are many kinds of streptococci. Those that cause disease usually enter the body by being inhaled or by direct contact with a break in the skin or mucous membranes.
As they grow in the respiratory system, they may cause sore throat, sinusitis or pneumonia. As the poisons they produce break down body tissues they may get into the blood and cause blood poisoning, rheumatic fever and other diseases.

Anyone who is recovering from an acute streptococcal infection should get a well-balanced diet. There is no special diet for these diseases.

Q—How is strep sore throat transmitted? I've had it three times since January. Can it be prevented?

A—The streptococcus is transmitted chiefly by contact with a person who is infected or is a carrier. Sources include discharges from the nose, throat or open sores. All such discharges should be burned and direct contact with infected persons should be avoided. Washing with germicidal soap helps to prevent infection. The victim can be cured with antibiotics.

Q—You once wrote that the chief way to contract trichomoniasis was by sexual relations. Since I do not have any outside sexual contacts and neither does my husband, please tell us how else we could have gotten it.

A—Many mysteries still exist in the field of medicine.
In most cases, the exact source of an infection with the

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

The pledge of allegiance to the flag first appeared in the Sept. 8, 1892, issue of Youth's Companion. The authorship has been contested for many years, being first attributed to James Baily Upham, an executive of the magazine.
However, investigations by the U.S. Flag Assn. in 1939 and the Library of Congress in 1957 have supported the claim of Francis Bellamy, also of Youth's Companion, as the author.

God's Word

Come let us go into the House of the Lord

Says Come

as you would

...continuing with the Golden Rule. And it is doubtful if any words of Jesus have been quoted more and with approval. It strikes our conscience and our reason. Therefore, "As You Would." That puts the Rule on a very personal basis... better take a look at yourself before you look at your neighbor. Do you know your mind? What do you want for yourself... health, wealth, honor, knowledge, favor and forgiveness of God? If you had three wishes that would be granted, how would you select them from the myriad claims upon your devotion? Paul lists the ends for which he strove... "love, joy, peace, patience, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self control." Was he wise? Would you put material values above these personal virtues? What goods are necessary and which of them could you do without? Perhaps it would help to reflect on your record. Actually, it will be decided exactly... "AS YOU WOULD."

More on the Golden Rule next week.

You In The Church
The Church In You
— form a combination for good. Every man, woman and child needs the influence of the church. So, come let us go into the house of the Lord. Let us support her program of service to humanity, be a faithful worker, a daily bible reader and attend services regularly.

These businessmen listed below urge everyone to get behind the churches. They alone provide a solution to the problems facing us.

Nixon to Take Month to Pick Assistants

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Richard M. Nixon has given himself at least a month to choose his top administrative officials and has deferred to President Johnson a decision on visits by the president-elect to Saigon and other foreign capitals before the inauguration.

The Vietnam trip, proposed Thursday by South Vietnam President Nguyen Van Thieu, would likely come up in an anticipated early meeting between Nixon and the President.

And while Nixon rested at his Key Biscayne, Fla., retreat, officials counted the final few ballots in elections still undecided.

In Washington, congressional leaders said they're assigning top priority to reform of the Electoral College system of electing presidents.

Rep. Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., chairman of the House Judiciary Committee, said in an interview Thursday he will schedule hearings as soon as possible next year to consider reforming the Electoral College.

Nixon has been credited with 287 electoral votes—only 17 more than a majority—on the basis of unofficial returns, although he could pick up more when absentee ballots are counted and official results are announced.

Nixon led Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey in Missouri, 766,169 to 758,547 with as many as 100,000 absentee ballots to be counted. The state has 12 electoral votes.

Nixon held a 902-vote lead in Alaska, with returns from some outlying areas and 7,000 absentee votes still to be counted. The state has three electoral votes.

Humphrey was leading by 17,738 votes in Maryland—which has 10 electoral votes—with 36,000 absentee votes out.

The latest tabulation of the popular votes gave Nixon 30,446,028; Humphrey 30,175,835 and George C. Wallace 9,186,703. Humphrey's total included votes cast for him in two different spots on the Alabama ballot.

It may be well into December before the vote has been counted officially nationwide and Republicans are guaranteed enough electoral votes.

Nixon's representatives in Washington went ahead with planning sessions on the transfer of power.

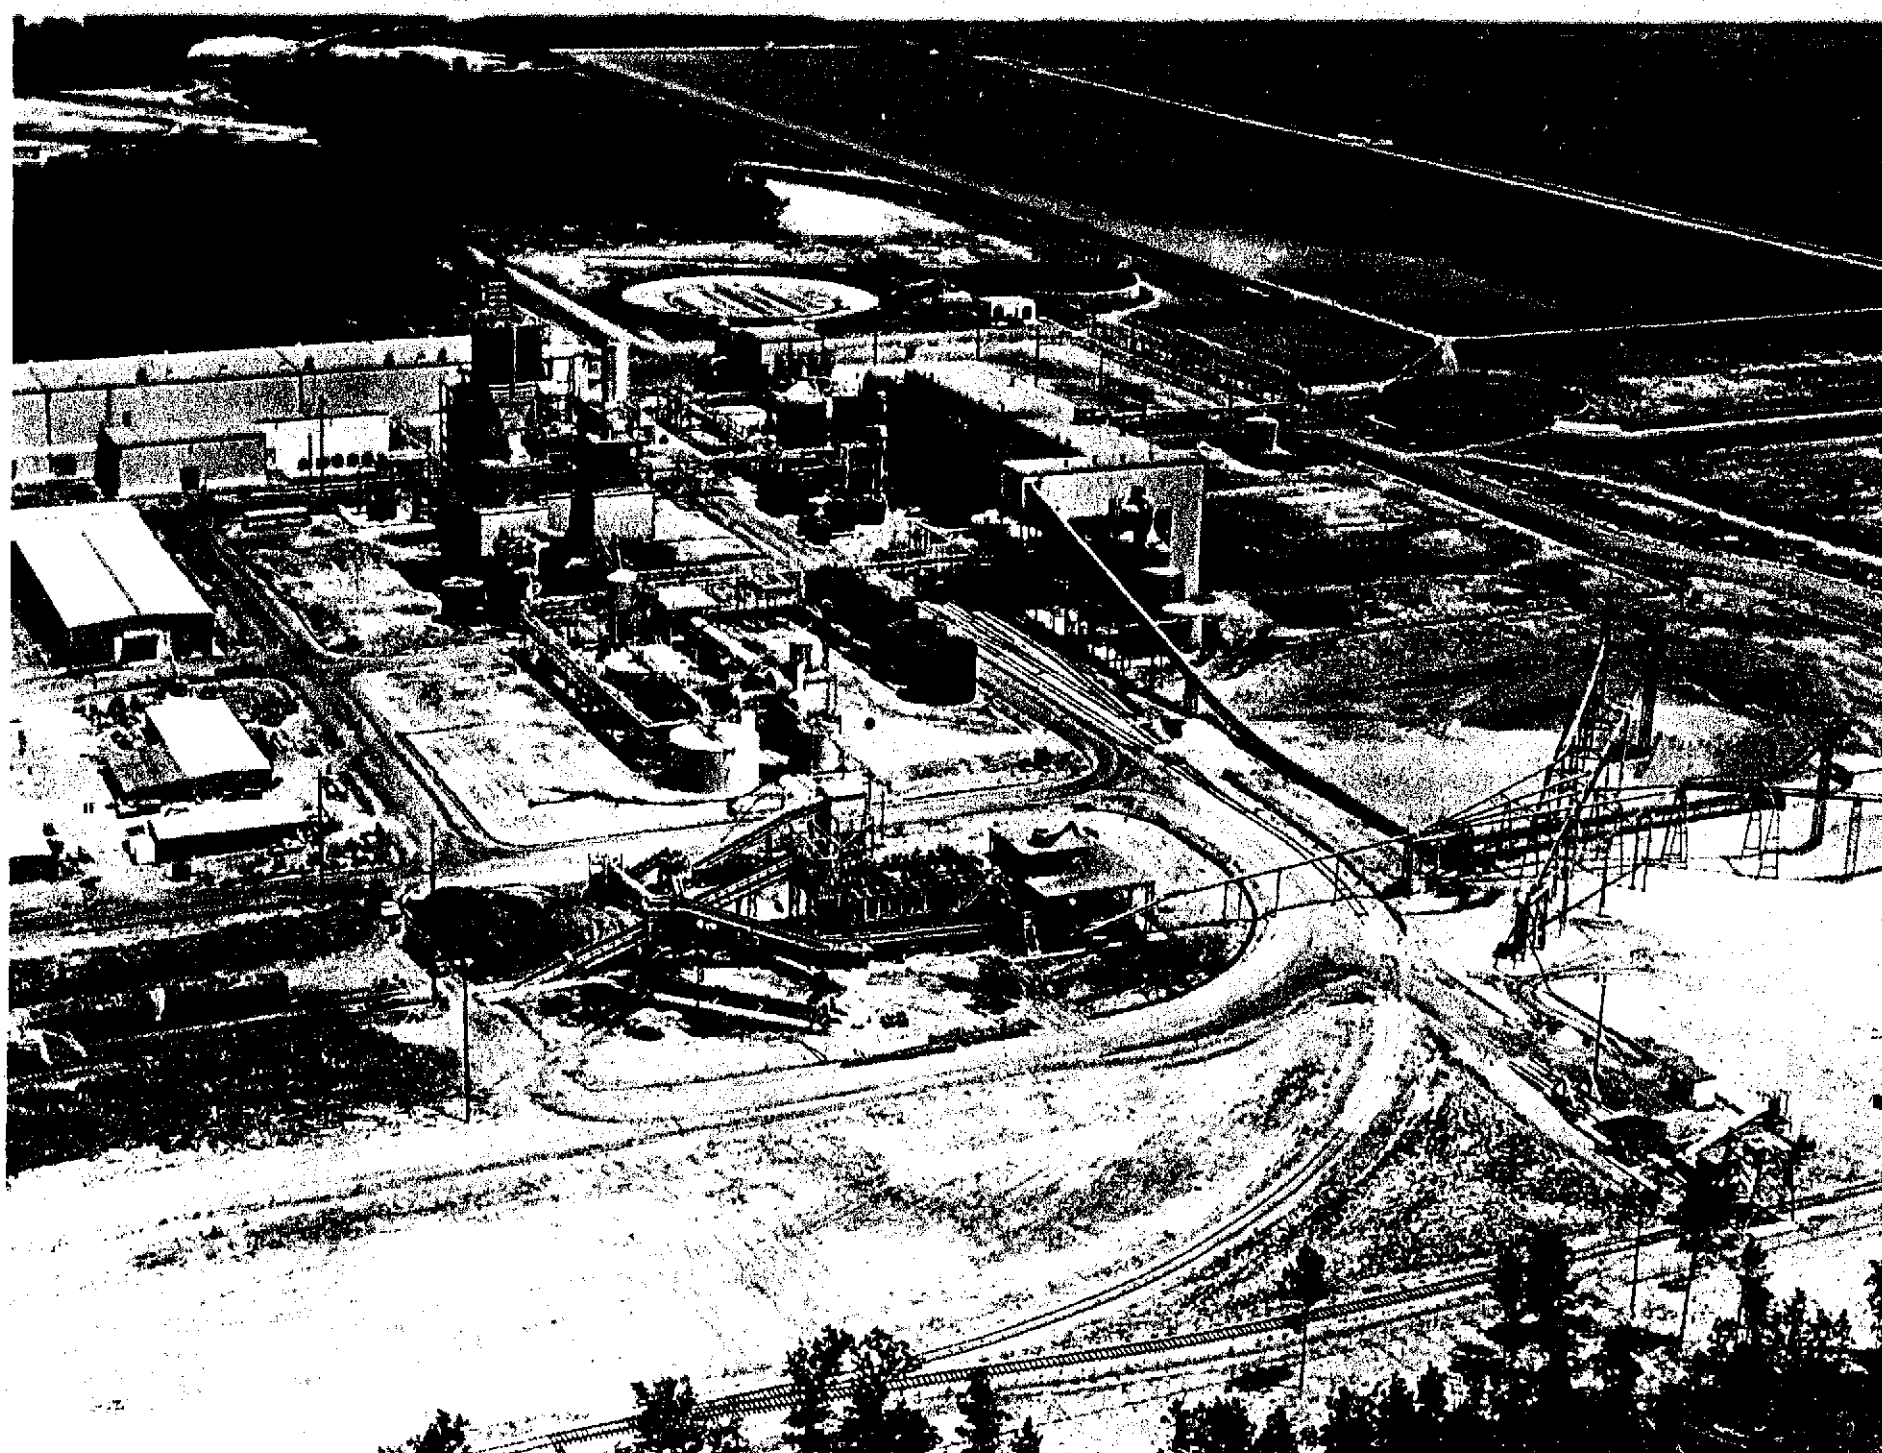

Reports from Key Biscayne said an early meeting between the President and president-elect are expected to be announced in the next few days.

The meeting would presumably touch on foreign relations and the new budget, which President Johnson will present and Nixon will have to live with.

South Vietnam President Thieu sent a telegram to Nixon Thursday, congratulating him and noting he would be most welcome "if you wish to make an on-the-spot assessment of the war and the situation ahead."

Ronald L. Ziegler, Nixon's chief spokesman said, "Mr. Nixon plans no foreign trip, and will make no such trip unless the President—President Johnson—suggests it would be helpful in furthering the negotiations toward peace."

document produced by the delegates will be voted on in the 1970 general election. With 2,811 of 2,825 precincts reported, the proposal calling for a constitutional convention led 217,586 to 201,963.

The kindergarten amendment, which lifts the age limit on public education in the state, led 225,864 to 211,157 with 2,732 precincts reported. Act 1, the workmen's proposal, clung to a narrow lead. With 2,811 precincts reported the act leads 237,642 to 235,030.

Four other proposals on the lengthy ballot were beaten. Amendment 54, which would increase from three to eight the number of constitutional amendments that the legislature could refer to the electorate in a two-year period, had 188,426 votes for 230,525 against with 2,760 precincts reported.

With 2,732 precincts reported Amendment 55, which would have made county judges administrative officers in the counties, had 200,374 votes for and 215,739 against.

Act 305, which would have created an Arkansas Dairy Commission, was soundly defeated as was Act 457, which would require voters to register by party affiliation. With 2,731 precincts reported Act 306 had 101,412 votes for and 285,386 against. Act 457 had 70,584 for and 329,231 against with 2,780 precincts reported.

There was no immediate comment from U.S. intelligence officials, but Tri's estimate of 60,000 enemy troops in the border area appeared to conflict with recent U.S. estimates of about 35,000 troops in the entire 3rd Corps area.

The South Vietnamese government said three days ago that an enemy document captured by American troops contained orders from Hanoi to step up military and political activity all over South Vietnam after the United States stopped bombing North Vietnam a week ago.

Meanwhile both the U.S. and South Vietnamese commands reported only light action across the country.

U.S. headquarters reported a U.S. Marine patrol base south of the demilitarized zone was the target of a rocket barrage Thursday, and Marines on patrol about a mile away were also hit. Marine casualties were light, with no fatalities, the command said.

A spotter plane located the rocket launchers inside South Vietnam, a mile south of the DMZ, and Marine counterfire resulted in six secondary explosions, indicating hits on ammunition, the Marines said.

The location of the launching site was significant. While North Vietnam has said the bombing halt was unconditional, U.S. sources in Saigon say it is

Czechs March, Shout Russians 'Go Home'

Associated Press Writer PRAGUE (AP) — Thousands of anti-Soviet demonstrators arched through Prague Thursday night, shouting "Russians go home" and burning Soviet flags in the biggest demonstrations since the Russian invasion in August.

Large numbers of Czechoslovak troops and police, under orders to crack down hard on the demonstrators, used water cannon, tear gas and clubs to break up the rioting.

Many persons were knocked down by police clubs, and many appeared to have been arrested. Ambulances carried away unknown numbers of wounded.

The six hours of rioting climaxed a tense, uneasy observance of the 51st anniversary of the Bolshevik Revolution, normally a day dedicated to Czechoslovak-Soviet friendship.

The tough police reaction contrasted sharply with the lenient manner in which anti-Soviet demonstrations were handled on Oct. 28, the 50th birthday of the Czechoslovak republic. Local leaders apparently were afraid that unchecked demonstrations would bring Soviet tanks rolling back into Prague.

Earlier, during a wreath-laying ceremony honoring Soviet soldiers killed during World War II, hard-line opponents of Czechoslovakia's liberal Communist party leader, Alexander Dubcek, grabbed him and shouted, "We're for the Soviet Union!"

Dubcek, who was with Premier Oldrich Cernik, managed a smile as several persons in the crowd shook their fists at the two leaders and shouted pro-Soviet slogans.

But in contrast to the thousands of anti-Soviets who turned out Thursday night, only about 500 pro-Soviets attended the memorial ceremony.

The first signs of anti-Soviet trouble in Prague occurred before dawn Thursday when Soviet flags, raised on public buildings during the night, were torn down.

Police moved in during the morning to disperse several hundred persons who massed in front of the Foreign Trade Administration building and chanted, "Tear it down! Tear it down!" until custodians removed two large Hammer and Sickle flags hung from the building.

After one Soviet flag was burned on the end of a stick, police swinging clubs cleared the area. Several persons were taken away by the police.

During the afternoon another demonstration formed in a dark drizzle at St. Wenceslas Square but dispersed after large numbers of police arrived.

Arrangement provides economy of piping and electrical connections, while maintaining flexibility for future expansion. Aeration and retention ponds for effluent treatment are in background. Mill is designed to produce 400 tons of kraft pulp and 200 tons of fine communication paper per day. The mill will use an estimated 261,000 cords of wood annually. Water requirements are estimated at 25 million gallons a day. The plant went on stream July 17, 1968, two weeks ahead of schedule. The new plant will be officially dedicated today with many visiting dignitaries on hand. Also planned are guided tours, refreshments and souvenirs. Open House is from 2 to 6:30 p.m.

to use a machine to get it dry. When a man has to pay for a taxi, all he does is reach into his pocket and fork out the dough. But before a woman can get her money she first has to put her house keys in her mouth and paw through the cluttered debris of a handbag almost as large as a steamer trunk. By that time she has caused a three-block traffic jam.

About the only things women can do that men can't is to bear children and to take off their shoes in movie houses. When you get right down to it, these privileges hardly seem to compensate for all the trouble it takes to be feminine.

Yes, sir, whenever a woman passes by, a man should bless his stars and say in silent gratitude to himself— "Then but for the grace of God, go I!"

While Bayn favors direct election and Celler said he tends toward a proportional plan, Senate GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen said a district electoral plan deserves consideration.

Under the district plan, long sponsored by Sen. Karl E. Mundt, R-S.D., each state's electoral votes would be allocated to districts roughly corresponding to congressional districts except that two votes would go to the popular vote winner in the state.

Bayh's constitutional amendment provides that the candidates for president and vice president receiving the greatest number of popular votes throughout the nation will be elected, provided they receive 40 per cent or more of the total vote.

If no candidate received 40 per cent of the vote, a runoff would be held between the two top contenders.

Bayh said the 40 per cent figure is "high enough to discourage small groups from splintering from the two major parties and low enough to assure a winning plurality in all but the most extreme circumstances."

The present system technically is the same as set up by the Founding Fathers in the Constitution, which provides that the president be elected by electors chosen by the states.

The Constitution also provided that if no candidate got an Electoral College majority, the decision would be made in the House with each state getting one vote.

There had been no serious threat of this happening since the election of 1824 when John Quincy Adams was awarded the presidency over Andrew Jackson, who was the leader in both popular and electoral votes.

Thieu Would Replace U.S. in Talks

SAIGON (AP) — President Nguyen Van Thieu proposed today that his South Vietnamese government replace the United States as the leader of the anti-Communist negotiating team at the Paris peace talks.

Thieu proposed a new formula for organization of the Paris conference under which the Communist side would be led by the North Vietnamese. He said it could also include the National Liberation Front, the political arm of the Viet Cong.

Even if the United States agrees to take a back seat at the Paris talks, North Vietnam appears certain to reject Thieu's attempt to give his government the No. 1 place on one side of the table while relegating the Viet Cong to a secondary role on the other. Hanoi has said repeatedly that the National Liberation Front is the only authentic representative of the South Vietnamese people.

Thieu's proposal was made in an attempt to counter the adverse reaction in the United States and elsewhere to his refusal to join the Paris peace talks this week. President Johnson, in halting the bombing of North Vietnam, proposed that the Saigon regime and the NLF send representatives to the talks without specifying the status they would be accorded.

Thieu refused because he said this was opening the door to recognition of the NLF, and he feared this would be the first step toward a coalition government which the Communists eventually would take over.

Thieu today proposed this formula for the peace talks: "Each party would have only one delegation. Our side is the victim of aggression. We would have representatives of the United States and, if necessary, other allied nations."

He said his government would play the leading role on its side of the table, while the North Vietnamese government would lead the other delegation. Hanoi, he said, could have members from whatever groups it desired.

Thieu denied with some heat reports from Washington that he had at one time agreed to four-party talks in Paris. He said he never discussed such talks with U.S. Ambassador Ellsworth Bunker in any of their 14 meetings that preceded Johnson's halt in the bombing.

Recalling his response to Johnson's speech last Thursday, Thieu said Hanoi still must guarantee to enter into sincere, direct talks with the Saigon government. He said the full-scale talks could not be considered a continuation of the preliminary negotiations in Paris between the United States and North Vietnam.

Figures Being a Man Much Simpler Than Being a Vexed Woman

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — One of the things men have to be grateful for is that they weren't born women.

I'd hate to be a woman. Being a man is so much simpler. When you hear a woman, vexed at her lot in life, exclaim enviously, "I wish I were a man." Rarely indeed, however, do you ever hear a man express a yearning to be a woman. He knows he's better off the way he is.

Life is so much easier when you're a male. All a man has to do in the morning is clear his throat, shower, hack off his whiskers, buckle on his armor and— presto, he's ready to sally forth and battle the world.

Not a woman, though. Everything she does takes time, time, and more time. Getting up in the morning for a woman is almost as involved as a production by the late Cecil B. De Mille.

She has to anoint her body with lotions and her face with creams. She has to check her stockings for runs and struggle unaided into a girdle as confining as a medieval torture chamber. She has to pluck her eyebrows, play her cheeks with

New Effort to Change Way of Electing U.S. Presidents Started

By JOHN CHADWICK
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — New efforts to change the way of electing a president have started in Congress in the wake of Tuesday's election, which barely missed being thrown into the House of Representatives for the first time in 144 years.

Indiana Sen. Birch Bayh, who called a news conference to discuss the matter today, has proposed substituting the direct popular election of the president for the current Electoral College system.

In the House, New York's Emanuel Celler, chairman of the Judiciary Committee said he will start hearings on proposed constitutional changes as quickly as possible next year.

Caller called the present system outdated and said he is inclined toward a system under which each state's electoral vote would be divided among the candidates in proportion to their popular vote.

The outcome of Tuesday's election hung in the balance for several hours when it looked as if none of the three candidates would obtain the 270 electoral votes necessary to be elected.

Republican Richard M. Nixon finally won by very narrow margins the three big states of Ohio, California and Illinois, which put him over the 270 electoral vote level although he and Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey both had 43 per cent of the popular vote. Independent George C. Wallace had about 13 per cent.

If there had been no electoral vote winner, then the House would have had to pick the winner.

Bayh, a Democrat, introduced a constitutional amendment in January 1967 to scrap the electoral college and replace it with direct popular election of the president and vice president.

It embodied the recommendations of a special study commission of the American Bar Association.

Cambodian Border Hit by Bombers

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — Waves of B52 bombers raided enemy base camps along the Cambodian border today, hitting an area northwest of Saigon where the South Vietnamese commander said the enemy has massed some 60,000 troops for a "total attack."

Fifty of the eight-jet bombers dropped 1,500 tons of explosives on troop concentrations, base camps, infiltration corridors and supply depots in eight missions between noon Thursday and noon today, the U.S. Command said.

The B52s bombed about 60 miles north-northwest of Saigon, five miles from the Cambodian border. The area is in War Zone C, a longtime Viet Cong stronghold.

Military spokesmen said that infantrymen following up B52 strikes Tuesday 35 miles west of Saigon found about 200 enemy fortifications were destroyed by the Stratofortresses.

Crews returning from two raids along the Cambodian border Thursday night reported their bombs set off 49 secondary explosions, indicating massive destruction of enemy munitions stockpiles.

Earlier today, Lt. Gen. Do Cao Tri, commander of the 3rd Corps area that stretches through Saigon to the Cambodian border, said the Communist command was preparing to launch an all-out attack in his area.

Tri told Vietnam Press, the government news agency, that according to intelligence documents, the enemy is planning a

Baptists Vote Budget of $115,000

Members of First Baptist Church voted Sunday to approve a $115,000 budget for the coming church year. The vote came at a called business meeting during the morning service.

The new budget covers appropriations for the work of the local congregation and for the state and worldwide mission programs of Arkansas and the Southern Baptist Convention. Of the total, $22,531.00 will be given to causes outside the local church.

Major items in the budget are: debt retirement, $33,492.00; education, music ministry, general promotion and special services, $20,027.00.

A Stewardship-Workers dinner was Wednesday night at the church. Held simultaneously was a children's party under the direction of Mrs. Devane Hendrix.

Sunday November, 10, has been designated as Pastor and Leadership Dedication Day. The following Sunday November 17, will be Membership Dedication Day. On these days dedication cards will be returned by the members to indicate their anticipated giving for next year.

Bryant May Refuse to Accept Tally

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Secretary of State Kelly Bryant says he will refuse to accept the certification of election returns from Pulaski County if the Democratic member of the Pulaski County Election Commission can substantiate his charges of "innumerable irregularities."

Carl D. McDaniel levelled the charges in a letter to Bryant.

Bryant presented the letter to the Arkansas Legislative Council which immediately appointed a five-member committee to investigate the charges.

Bryant said he had the power to hold up certification. He said he would ask either Atty. Gen. Joe Purcell or Prosecutor Richard B. Adkisson to file charges if McDaniel supplied evidence of irregularities.

The Legislative Council asked Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller to convene the state Election Commission, which is dominated by Democrats, to investigate the allegations.

G. Thomas Eisele, the governor's legal adviser, said the Election Commission did not have the authority to investigate.

"Kelly Bryant is not going to sit as judge on the elections if the Republicans have anything to do with it," Eisele said.

W. T. Kelly, republican chairman of the Pulaski County Election Commission, said he thought a majority of the three-member commission could certify the vote. Richard Butler, a Republican, is the third member of the commission.

"It appears to me that I was allowed to make whatever mistakes I could make in light of having never been chairman before," he said.

McDaniel said he had five complaints. He said the primary one was that more votes were cast in many boxes than were submitted to the election commission on the voter registration list.

"As a result, it is impossible to accurately determine the number of votes received by each candidate in these boxes," he said in the letter.

McDaniel also said that duplicate lists of voters weren't kept as required by law; a tabulation sheet of all machines was not compiled by the judges in any precinct as required by law; and absentee ballots were counted in a "haphazard method."

"The results of this entire election in this county were compiled by the Republican party without the usual participation of the Democratic party or the Pulaski County clerk," he said.

One Box Out, Margin Just Under 3,000

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Lt. Gov. Maurice Britt, riding a plurality of more than 6,000 votes in Sebastian County, Thursday edged past his Democratic opponent, Bill Wells, in his battle for a second term.

With 2,825 boxes reported out of a total of 2,826, the unofficial tally showed Britt with 299,007 and Wells with 296,049.

This gives Britt a margin of 2,958 with one box not reported in the unofficial tally.

A surge in the final boxes reported in Pulaski County almost doubled Britt's lead. The remaining box is in Madison County, where officials said it had not yet been counted. The box would not contain enough votes to alter the outcome if the unofficial tabulations were correct.

Wells attempted Thursday to have the vote count halted in Sebastian County, but Circuit Court Judge Paul Wolfe refused to rule on his petition for a writ of mandamus.

Wolfe said he would conduct a formal hearing on the petition Tuesday afternoon.

Wells told newsmen that the election officials violated an 1875 law which he says prohibits the adjournment of the ballot count beyond the day that succeeds the election day.

He said the vote counting stopped about 7:15 p.m. Wednesday in Sebastian County and was resumed at 7:50 a.m. Thursday. He said Pulaski County officials stopped counting at 2:30 a.m. Thursday and resumed counting a b ntee ballots later in the day.

Wells contended that he had defeated Britt by about 10,400 votes—his margin over Britt when the Sebastian County officials stopped counting.

Wells, recalling that Britt had surged past Democrat James H. Pilkinton two years ago with the late Sebastian County vote tally, told newsmen that the trend of the vote changed "radically" to up to 12 to 1 in Britt's favor when the officials resumed counting after an adjournment.

He said "some sort of manipulation" led to Pilkinton's defeat and "I don't want the possibility of such an event to happen again."

The tabulations from all 103 boxes in Sebastian County showed Britt with 16,717 and Wells with 10,292.

Earlier Thursday, Wells was asked if he thought there had been or might be a manipulation. He said, "No."

The remaining uncounted boxes include four in Pulaski County, two in Desha County, two in Madison, one each in Jefferson, Searcy, Stone and Lawrence.

Eddie Holland, a Britt aide, told a crowd at Republican campaign headquarters Thursday that Republican figures showed Britt had a 188-vote lead. He said the figures included all but 11 boxes in Sebastian County and showed Britt with 287,713 and Wells with 287,525.

The vote compiled by the News Election Service at the same time showed Wells with a lead of 1,745 votes.

Pedestrians in Nevada to Get a Chance

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Clark County plans to install signals at four key crosswalks along the strip. The idea is to make it easier to walk from casino to casino.

"The pedestrians should have at least the same survival odds as they do at the crap tables," said Jim Ryan, county commissioner.
